Football Score Board Will Be Presented by Lions Saturday Night

A new football scoreboard will officially be presented to the local high school by the Antioch Lions Club Saturday night. The local club purchased the board from a share of the proceeds given to them by the Harlem Globe Trotter Basketball organization. Howard Martin, assistant sports editor of the Chicago Tribune made it possible for Abe Saperstein's excellent squad and entertainment to be presented in the local gym last October 21. The total proceeds derived from the exhibition were shared equally by the Antioch Lions club and the Lake Villa Men's club.

The football scoreboard which will be presented by the Lions club at the opening football game of the season is a beautiful enameled aluminum board. The over-all dimensions are 18 1/2 feet long and 8 feet high. The numerals are 24 inches high and all lettering is eighteen inches high. The timer is an automatic minute and second clock that indicates to the spectators immediately the amount of time to play in each quarter. Because the local high school football games are played at night the board is painted with white enamel background and black letters. The board has been placed at the northeast corner of the athletic field where visiting spectators and local fans can easily see it.

Lloyd Murrie served as chairman of the purchasing committee with Elmer Baethke and Albert Dittman assisting in the selection of the scoreboard.

President Norman Jedelev will preside at the presentation program Saturday. James Kopriva and Albert Dittman are helping with the program plans.

All Antioch Lions Club members will be special guests of the Board of Education at the game.

Morals Charge Against Three Antioch Township Boys Dropped in Court

The morals charges against Harry Lockman, 19, Lake Villa; Andrew Anderson, 19, Loon Lake rd.; and Raymond J. Edwards, 15, rural Antioch were dropped in circuit court Tuesday when their accuser, a 16-year-old Antioch girl broke down on the witness stand and was unable to give testimony.

She gave a few quiet answers and then lapsed into silence.

State's Atty. Robert C. Nelson, who asked that the charges of rape against Lockman and Anderson and contributing to the delinquency of a minor against Edwards, be dropped, said the girl gave a coherent complete story to the investigators before the trial started.

She was carried to the office of an Antioch physician in an unconscious condition on May 28, and remained in a state of shock and was unable to speak until June 1.

Leaky Furnace Causes Overheating

The fire department was called to 55 Grapevine Ave., Channel Lake Bluff at 4:30 p. m. yesterday when an oil furnace became overheated and threatened the residence. A leak in a valve had allowed oil to collect in the furnace and when it was lighted the heat became intense. The department remained on a standby basis until danger was past.

Play Golf at Richmond Members of the Antioch Lions club went to the Hunter Country club at Richmond yesterday for their semi-annual golf tournament and dinner.

County Board Approves Township Road Levies

The Lake County Board of Supervisors approved certificates of levy for road and bridge purposes for 1955 as recommended by the highway committee.

Antioch township's rate was .08 bringing a total of $30,400, and Lake Villa .08 for a total of $15,000.

The board voted 19 to 8 to move the fast growing building and zoning department from the court house building to the old sheriff's home.

The board also approved unanimously a resolution asking the State Highway department to acquire the old right of way of the North Shore Line's shore line route for use as a highway which the county would help build.

In event Cook county isn't interested in the plan the State would be asked to acquire the right of way from 10th st., North Chicago, to the Lake-Cook county line.

The Chicago city railway system is considering purchasing the line which was discontinued in July.

More Serious Charges Filed Against Waterman On Re-arrest Saturday

Lewis Waterman, 18, was arrested again Saturday at his home at Petite Lake Highlands by Deputy sheriffs and charged with reckless driving and assault with a deadly weapon.

The youth was said to have forced Herbert Horton off the street when the latter attempted to stop him for speeding a week ago Saturday. Deputy Sheriff Charles E. (Chuck) Larson of Antioch received bad facial injuries when his car was wrecked while chasing Waterman into Wisconsin to make the arrest.

Later Saturday Waterman was arrested for speeding and reckless driving and released on bond. The new charges are more serious.

Larson came home from Victory Memorial hospital Saturday and is showing steady improvement. Some of the stitches taken in his face were removed, but others are yet to be taken out.

Record Enrollment for Band at High School; Voice Groups Large

Antioch Township High school has begun the 1955-1956 school year with a record enrollment in instrumental music classes. Approximately 80 students are participating in the band program.

For the first year it has been necessary to form two band organizations. The concert band will perform at games and concerts during the year. The prep band will perform at pep assemblies.

Also included in the high school music program is a 30 voice girls' glee club and a 52 voice a cappella choir.

Openings are still available in the bands and choirs. Particular need is for girls' voices, Louis Chennette, director, said.

To Dedicate Cottage At Allendale School On Sunday Afternoon

The Otto W. Lehmann memorial cottage at the Allendale School for Boys will be dedicated at 4 p. m. Sunday and friends of the school are invited to attend.

Edward D. Shumway of 735 E. Westminster, Lake Forest, board president, will introduce Claire Appleby, headmaster, and the Rev. Robert Andrus of the First Presbyterian church, Lake Forest who will give the dedicatory address.

The new red and white brick cottage of two floors overlooking Cedar lake, provided a residence for 10 boys who need a more homelike atmosphere than the regular dormitories, according to Appleby.

Robert O. Lehmann, son of the late benefactor, is a member of the Allendale board for the school.

Among the Allendale supporters who will be present at the dedication Sunday are Messrs. and Mesdames Nelson Barnes, Francis C. Farwell, Albert D. Farwell, Sr., P. H. Carroll, Roger Q. White, Mason Phelps, Jr., and Fred W. Fairman, all of Lake Forest. Mrs. Barnes is head of the women's board.

There will be a baseball game by the boys at 4:30 p. m. and members of the board and friends will be guests at a cocktail party at the Appleby home at the school afterward.

Antioch and Bristol Bands Plan Combined Concert This Autumn

Members of the Antioch Community band will travel to Bristol, Wis., Monday evening, Sept. 19, for a combined rehearsal session. The two bands plan to present a concert some time this fall with approximately 70 musicians of the two bands taking part.

Regular sessions of the Antioch band will be discontinued during the time the joint venture is taking shape, and after that the members of the local band will spend regular practice session time in preparing for the annual minstrel show.

The minstrel show, which was such a huge success last year, will be further refined and developed this year, according to William Dow, chairman, and present plans include presentation of the show either two or three evenings, since the crowds attending last year were capacity for the high school auditorium.

Duck, Goose Hunting Season Longer This Year, Open on Saturday, Oct. 15, Close on Dec. 20

If dad and the boys eye their dogs with a little more respect and can be seen caressing their shotguns on occasion it's because the duck hunting season is not far off.

The opening day is Saturday, Oct. 15 and the closing day, Dec. 20. The season will open one week earlier and close eight days later than last year because of an increased crop of most species of ducks. Geese are at least holding their own in numbers. Goose hunting dates will be the same as duck dates in the newly created Northern Conservation zone. In the southern zone the opening will be Nov. 5, and closing, Dec. 15.

Duck hunting hours are from one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour before sunset, opening day included this year.

Daily bag limit will remain four ducks a day with eight ducks in possession. The daily bag may include one wood duck. Daily limit of two Canada or white front geese or two in combination. Possession and daily bag limit are the same.

More Ducks, Uncle Sam Reports. The report that there were more ducks caused the federal government to liberalize its regulations and the state took full advantage of this situation.

Public hunting opportunities for 10,500 additional Illinois hunters will be available on State Department of Conservation grounds this coming season, thanks to extension of both waterfowl and pheasant seasons and the addition of three new public hunting areas.

Permit office for the department will be opened next week at 303 E. Monroe st., Springfield, and hunters may send in their requests for permits between now and Sept. 25.

There will be eight pheasant areas in operation for 20 days this season, in contrast to six for 15 days a year ago, providing a daily capacity of more than 1,100 hunters.

More Opportunities Five duck areas and two goose hunting grounds will provide opportunity (continued on page 12)

High School Hand Book Presented to Students

Antioch High School has published a student handbook entitled "Inside Antioch High." All students have received a copy of the booklet which explains the rules, regulations, and policy of the school.

The original organization for the handbook was started by the Student Council during the 1954-55 school year. The council requested number of high schools that have developed pamphlets for their schools. The council discussed various aspects of the handbook organization and suggested to the office the kind of book most advantageous for Antioch High.

During the summer months the office brought together all rules, regulations, and policy of the school and mimeographed the materials in handbook fashion.

Though the handbook is primarily information for students, the parents are encouraged to read the contents too so that parent and child are completely aware of the operation of the school.

The handbook has been released in mimeographed form this year so that changes can easily be made subject to printing pocket-size books for distribution in 1956-57. It is hoped that suggestions for improvement will be offered during the year by students, parents, teachers, clubs, and organizations so that an attractive booklet can be published next year.

Reading Specialist Will Address P.T.A. Monday Rush Darigan, a reading specialist of Scott Foreman and Company, educational publishing house, Chicago, will be the main speaker at the first meeting of the Antioch Grade School P. T. A. at 8 p. m. Monday at the school.

Darigan will discuss reading problems of children and will answer questions of teachers and parents.

Eighth grade mothers will serve refreshments.

Football Season Opens With Wilmot Panthers Here Saturday Night

Both Teams Good; Close Score Expected; Wilmot Has More Veterans

A good game is expected Saturday evening when the Panthers from Wilmot High face the Antioch Sequoits under the lights at Antioch's field.

"We know they are good because they have many men left from last year's team which was a good one, but our team has been coming along good during the past week and will make a good showing, too," commented Coach Paul Kessenich, Antioch mentor.

The Sequoits have improved greatly during the past week as scrimmages both daylight and under the lights show.

Only one injury of any serious nature has occurred on the Antioch squad so far. Al Harman received a leg injury and may or may not be able to play Saturday night.

While the team isn't as heavy as last year and depth is lacking, Coach Kessenich believes there is little more speed.

Antioch Lineup Announced

Jim Corbel and Jim Scully, both seniors will alternate at the center position, Corbel taking over on the offense and Scully on the defense.

Co-captains Jerry Meyer and Harvey Strametz will hold down the guard positions with Tom Kelley taking over on the defense and Jim Lystlund available also in the guard position or at end.

Both Meyer and Strametz, regulars last year, are fast, good blockers and fine defensive performers, too.

Bill Terry, 175 pound senior who supplanted Jim McMillen late last year, will again be at tackle, Richard Vlk, a junior, will be in the starting lineup at left tackle with David Mitchell also a junior, getting to see play.

Jerry Huml, the only letterman at end, will hold down the tip at the right side of the line and Frank Walsh, 160-pound junior will be at the other end. Sid Parker will be ready to take over one of the other posts.

Al Reckers, 155-pound junior, will play quarterback. He understudied Warren Brownlee last year and is a good passer, but hasn't seen too much varsity service. He will be relieved at times on the defense (continued on page 12)

Coaches at Meetings Get Football Rules, Plan Conference Play

Coaches of Antioch Township High School last evening attended a meeting on football rules at Waukegan Township High school.

Interpretation of football rules was given by referees and others so that there will be no misunderstandings or disagreements at games this year. Meetings such as these are held at strategic points over the entire state by the Illinois State High School Athletic Association.

The coaches attended a meeting of coaches of the Northwest suburban conference at Waukegan Monday evening. Use of colors in uniform were checked to determine where there would be similarity or not and basketball game schedules were also checked.

The action of the coaches and athletic directors must have the approval of the school principals and athletic matters in general will be taken before them at a joint meeting of principals and coaches at Palatine next Wednesday afternoon and evening, according to Director Warren Polley of Antioch Township High School, who with Principal A. L. Dittman will attend.

Economic Highlights

The so-called "new look" in East-West relations, which was unveiled officially at the Geneva Summit conference, has two sides to it. On one side—the superficial one—there is an amazing amount of sweetness and light. The lavish and unprecedented party which Premier Bulganin gave for Western diplomats had a carnival atmosphere. U. S. farmers have visited Russia and Russian farmers have visited here, with hospitality reigning supreme in both cases. Russia has announced plans for not only permitting but encouraging Western tourists to visit Moscow and various other centers. The top Russians, like their counterparts across the Iron Curtain, have again and again pledged their dedication to peaceful co-existence. The bluster and arrogance of the Stalin era have largely disappeared.

On the other side—the fundamental side—there has as yet been no indication that the basic difference between East and West are in the process of successful reconciliation.

For example, the Russians are holding firm to two goals which are unacceptable to this country. First, and foremost, they want NATO to be disbanded. It would be replaced by a new and purely European security pact. The U. S. then, according to the Russian plan, would withdraw its forces from Europe and dismantle its bases—including those in North Africa and the middle East as well. The advantages that would accrue to Russia are too obvious to need explanation. Second, they want Formosa to be given to Red China, and Red China admitted to U. N. membership.

The American position was again made clear by President Eisenhower, in his major policy address before the American Bar Association. Three points were stressed. First, Germany must be reunited. Second, Russia must cease to dominate her satellites. Third, there must be an end to Russian-backed efforts to subvert and communize other nations. None of these absolutes, obviously, fits in with Russian ideas.

It may be that the best chance for concrete progress, even though of a limited nature, lies in the prospects for some disarmament. There are four plans here. The U. S. backs the dramatic Eisenhower program which would permit free aerial inspection by the powers of any and all military and related installations. Russia wants to limit inspection to certain major ports and bases. England proposes that inspections, at first anyhow, be confined to the East-West forces facing each other in Europe. The French plan is based on reduction of national military budgets. Out of all this, some common ground for successful negotiation may be found.

It is possible, finally, that the real achievement at Geneva was of a somewhat intangible nature. Edward Weintal made an interesting point in Newsweek. In his opinion, the conference should not be considered a failure because no specific agreements were reached. He believes that the Soviet threat remains and will remain so long as Russia "has a powerful war machine, nuclear arsenal, and ruthless men to run it." But, he adds, "Moscow's new look has given Washington an opportunity to think of the menace as a long-range problem and not as a series of recurrent crises. . . . Now, undoubtedly, a period of trading and bargaining on a global scale is about to begin."

Grass Roots Opinion

MANCHESTER, TENN., TIMES: "The Pennsylvania Grit very sensibly says: 'Most U. S. Employers agree that minimum wage laws are necessary to protect workers from exploitation. The question is, how far can you go—and still be fair to both employers and employees? . . . Laws do not have the magic power to create wealth and make it possible for an employer to pay higher wages than a worker is able to earn.'"

BROWNWOOD, TEXAS, BANNER: "If one is consistent and holds to the principle of private ownership of business, he should be opposed to any form of government ownership of the other fellow's business, as well as his own."

INDIO, CALIF., DATE PALM: "We have long known that Uncle Sam was the biggest land owner in California. But it wasn't until recently that an inventory . . . revealed that his holdings amount to 46 million acres. That's 56.4 per cent of the State's total area. The administration has promised greater speed in turning over 'surplus' lands to the states or individual citizens. There must be plenty here that can be turned over."

WHITEHALL, WIS., TIMES: "Too many Americans, in this matter of guarding the interests of the public, are content to 'Let George' do it, not realizing that 'George' died several decades ago."

How Public Service Company keeps your electric bill down—

(while everything else goes up)

Even though most things have doubled in price, a kilowatt-hour of electricity actually costs you less today than 25 years ago.

Here at Public Service Company, one way we keep your electric bill low is by planning 10 to 20 years ahead. We test these plans on our big network calculator—a sort of electric "answer man"—which helps us decide where to build new power plants and substations to serve you at the lowest cost.

So today, although you're using far more work-saving electricity than 25 years ago, you're getting a lot more for your money—almost twice as much, in fact.

Blind Veteran Helps Sightless Renew Confidence

CHICAGO—Newly blinded veterans and servicemen are learning to walk, work, and play again under the leadership of a man just as blind as they.

Serving as a constant example of success and adjustment to the newly blinded men at the VA hospital, Hines, Ill., is Russell C. Williams, himself a blinded veteran. He is chief of the blind rehabilitation section at Hines.

Assisting Williams are specially trained sighted therapists who work "seven days a week, 24 hours a day" on an individual basis with the patients.

The program participated in by the patients, who come from throughout the United States, is not vocational training but a way of making the emotional and physical change needed for "a fresh launching into society." Underlying all the activities is the aim of showing blinded men that they can adjust and succeed in everyday life.

The activities begin with simple projects and progress to harder ones.

As patients conquer each new situation, they move to the next, always gaining confidence in their ability to succeed. Each patient progresses at his own rate under the supervision of his own therapist.

In shop units, patients begin with leather work, move to weaving, then to the use of hand tools and, finally, to power equipment.

The men are taught to walk with a cane in simple situations in the hospital.

Nation On Mass Prospecting Binge

NEW YORK — The American public is on a mass prospecting binge. It used to be gold, silver or a new railroad that would set a town rocking, but in this atomic age, it's uranium. As a result, amateur prospecting has become one of the biggest of all U. S. hobbies and a booming multi-million dollar Geiger counter business has sprung up.

The "new" prospector is offered a remarkably broad selection of instruments and books, radioactive ore samples and other accessories peculiar to uranium hunting. A free quickie education on how to prospect is usually thrown in as a bonus. One New York City supplier sells everything from geologists' picks at $4.98 apiece to scintillation counting systems for airborne surveying at $4500.00.

Has the prospecting boom reached its peak? No one thinks so, least of all the prospectors and with one being born every minute, they should know. As a sport, it is gaining innumerable fans and as a business, well . . . even the beginning of the end is a long way off, according to the experts.

Collector's Coincidence In Illinois, Canada

CHICAGO—A collector's coincidence was uncovered recently when it was learned that a man in Illinois and another in Winnipeg, Canada who happen to work for the same company, also happen to have the same hobby—collecting, or rather saving their old license plates.

Both collections date back to 1912 and, not entirely by coincidence, each man has managed to get the same license number year after year. Since 1912, Elmer W. Rietz, of Highland Park, Ill., has each year received and saved license No. 2398. For the same number of years, Paul Charles, who works for the same company Rietz does, has had Manitoba Province license No. 179.

Rietz states he has never had to pull any political strings to keep his low digit number intact despite the fact some 68,000 license plates were issued in 1912 in Illinois, and more than 2.5 million issued in 1954. He merely applies early every year, requesting number 2398 from the Illinois Secretary of State.

Can't Sue to Recover Money Lost At Races

NEW YORK—A woman who lost $425 on her first visit to a race track also lost her suit to recover the money she lost on the ponies.

Justice Harold Stevens dismissed the suit and ruled that Miss Paula Aiello, 28, a dress buyer, cannot sue to recover money lost in pari-mutuel bets.

Long Way Home

LANDORE, Wales — George Slade answered a knock on his door recently. The surprise caller was his brother, William, 78, Ellwood City, Pa., whom he had not seen for 42 years.

"I decided suddenly to fly over," the brother explained. "I didn't tell anybody I was coming because I wanted to find my own way home, and I did."

New Apparel Makes Pedestrian Night Life Safer

ST. PAUL, Minn. — Since the automobile took over from the horse, a constant problem and source of tragedy has been the nighttime pedestrian—the dim figure that looms up suddenly before the motorist.

Traffic authorities attribute many thousands of pedestrian deaths each year to the failure of man's eyes to keep up with the development of his machines. The driver cannot see in the dark and yet pedestrians walk in the dark streets.

After years of experimentation, scientists have evolved a solution—wearing apparel that looks like just any other apparel and that is being produced in highly styled designs but that reflects light back to motorists when their headlights hit it, making the wearer visible to the driver from hundreds of feet away. Yet, because it reflects light back only to the source of light the garment looks just like any others to people on the street or road. The wearer is not at all conspicuous except to the driver whose headlights are directed on him.

Introduction of these reflectorized garments marks one of the most promising developments in the history of safety and may revolutionize the entire textile industry by leading to incorporation of reflectorized material into all outer garments.

Volunteers Man Needed Mobile Unit

PITTSBURGH—Typical of volunteer fire department units in a small community is the Berryville, Arkansas unit headed by Chief Owen Payne.

When Payne returned from war service in 1952 he led a group of veterans in a drive to provide Berryville with a mobile unit equipped to aid victims of emergencies and disasters.

The response was quick and generous. An automobile agency provided a truck at cost, a tire dealer offered new tires at a fraction of their value. The veterans painted the truck themselves. Stretchers, first aid supplies, axes, shovels and other emergency equipment flooded in as the community rallied to the call for help. Funds were raised for the purchase of an automatic artificial respiration instrument.

Since the rescue unit was established, the life-saving respiratory equipment has been used in emergencies on an average of once a month.

Less Strain On Man Who Works Alone

LOS ANGELES—Though his job may be simpler, the assembly line worker is under more psychological strain than the man who works alone.

In a recent project at Michigan's Research Center for Group Dynamics, Dr. Alvin Zander, of the University of Michigan helped set up two production situations which simulated work of an assembly line nature and that of an individualistic crafts nature. At each worker's foot was an electric button which he was urged to press whenever he felt the urge to stop work and take a break.

The researcher found that in the assembly line situation workers are very much dependent upon the actions of fellow workers and other factors beyond their control. A crafts worker who does each step in production of an object himself is under less pressure from the group.

More Farm Buyers Use Credit Financing

NEW YORK—Credit is playing a bigger role now in the farm real estate market than it has in a number of years.

Figures compiled by the U. S. Department of Agriculture show that more than six out of every ten farms bought in the year ending March, 1954 involved credit financing. The comparable proportion in the mid-forties averaged little more than four out of every ten farms sold.

Average debt per acre also has increased, amounting to around $60 last year, up approximately 100 per cent since the end of World War II. Average valuation of farm real estate per acre rose approximately 67 per cent in the same period. Total farm mortgage debts at the end of 1954 was estimated at $8.2 billions, up 7 per cent over the year before and 72 per cent above the 1946 low.

Thrown By Tree

STOUGHTON, Wis. — Austin Jones, 44, was the accidental victim of an old American Indian torture while helping remove a tree near here.

He was thrown through the air like a missile from a slingshot when the top branches were removed from a tree which was bent double and the tree snapped to an upright position.

TV
Stuff

By JACK SEIB and JOHN SHERBET

Your television set may have cost $49.95 or $495.95, but either of them to do a job well must have an antenna to catch the all-important signal beamed out from the broadcasting station. Here, too often, economies are made on cheaper antenna installations which will not allow the TV receiver to perform to its maximum value.

Indoor antennas will work if your sending station is nearby, but even then, minor disturbances in the home will spoil good reception. I've seen the raising or lowering of an aluminum blind on a nearby window make a difference in the reception. Outside barriers like tall buildings or electric transformers will affect the television wave, too. All these conditions must be considered when an antenna installation is made.

There is no question that your TV receiver must be well fed from the antenna for the best results in viewing pleasure. We at COURTEOUS TV have had a wide experience with antennas in conjunction with TV servicing, and can guarantee our results. Phone Antioch 144 for professional television service.

Decorator's Notebook by Alicia Joyce

Style influences from around the world are the new fashions shown at the summer furniture markets.

Shown above is the simplicity of Danish styling. This grouping is one of the most versatile collections of living, dining and bedroom furniture.

Not only are these units interchangeable from room to room, but within a room, and with each other. They bring an unusual and pleasant architectural aspect to our homes. For this custom look, base pieces are individual units, separate from cabinets and drawer chests, creating a free scaling variation about the room. The base units may also be used as benches or coffee tables. Note the extra storage space in the three drawers of the base units.

The wood is walnut, finished to have a hand-rubbed sheen, which allows the full beauty of the wood to show through—an increasing trend in new furniture styles.

Sliding drawers in the chests are reversible—one side is a walnut finish, and the other side is a dramatic black panelite.

New fashion touches are the louvred drawer fronts on case pieces, and the tamboured cabinet for either Television or Hi-Fi.

Rep. Church Announces Examinations for Naval, Military, Air Academies

Representative Marguerite Stitt Church (R), 13th District, Illinois, announced today that her competitive examination for all candidates for appointment to the United States Naval Academy and the United States Military Academy and nomination for admission to the United States Air Force Academy in 1956 will be held under the auspices of the United States Civil Service Commission on Monday, Nov. 14, 1955. The examination will be held in Chicago, Des Plaines, Evanston, and Waukegan.

Rep. Church will have three vacancies at the United States Naval Academy and one vacancy at the United States Military Academy in 1956. In addition, she will be allowed to nominate ten candidates for possible admission to the Air Force Academy in 1956, with the final selection of air cadets being made by the Air Force Academy Appointment Branch on a state-wide basis. The state of Illinois will be allowed seventeen cadets at the Air Force Academy in 1956.

All candidates must be actual residents of the 13th District, of sound physical health and good moral character, and must be not less than 17 nor more than 22 years of age on July 1, 1956. The 13th Congressional District is composed of the townships of Barrington, Elk Grove, Evanston, Hanover, Leyden, Maine, New Trier, Niles, Northfield, Palatine, Schaumburg, Wheeling, and that part of Norwood Park Township west of the center line of Canfield Road in Cook county, and all of Lake county.

The applicant should designate the order of preference of Academies and where it would be most convenient for him to take the examination. If temporarily absent from the 13th District, he may be examined elsewhere, at points where, the Civil Service Commission maintains an officer or examiner, or in the armed forces under his commanding officer.

Letters of application must be postmarked before midnight, October 5, addressed to Representative Marguerite Stitt Church, House of Representatives, Washington 25, D. C.

To Launch 1955 Rat Control Campaign

Farm Adviser Ray T. Nicholas will launch the 1955 rat control campaign in Lake County on Monday, Oct. 3. This annual campaign is a service sponsored by the farm adviser in Lake county in co-operation with the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

The effectiveness of the campaign depends on wide use of the specially prepared Warfarin rat bait with everyone starting the baiting at the same time, says Ray T. Nicholas.

This rat baiting campaign is not conducted as a commercial enterprise to sell rat bait, but is a part of the Extension Service pest control campaign. Baits made available at cost to every resident of Lake county and may be obtained from the farm adviser's office on and after October 3 of this year. The bait should be obtained and used as soon as possible after Oct. 3.

Warfarin rat bait is generally harmless to pets and other animals, but the use of bait stations is advised to make the bait more effective in ridding rats, states the farm adviser.

This Warfarin bait will be available in one pound packages. Most farms will require at least 5 pounds of bait if there are any rats at all. Where rats are numerous, as much as 20 pounds may be needed.

Additional information may be obtained by calling the farm adviser's office at Grayslake, phone Baldwin 3-8471.

Part-Time Work Questions in Current Population Survey

Questions on part-time work will be asked along with inquiries covering employment and unemployment in the September Current Population survey, according to Supervisor Dayton P. Jorgenson of the Census Bureau's district office at Chicago.

Similar questions asked in the July Current Population Survey revealed that 7,113,000 persons worked part time in the United States during the week of July 10-16 in non-agricultural industries while 1,836,000 worked part time in agriculture. Of the 7,113,000 persons in non-agricultural industries who worked part time during the week of July 10-16, 2,361,000 usually worked full time at their present job while 4,752,000 regularly work part time. The latter figure includes persons who could only find part-time work. In agriculture, 589,000 of the 1,836,000 persons reported as working part time during the week of July 10-16 usually work full time at their present job while 1,247,000 usually work part time.

The Current Population Survey will be conducted here and in 229 other areas of the country during the week of September 19-24.

Industry's New Wonder Battery Is Button-Size

ELGIN, Ill. — Industry has claimed development of a button-size, expandable battery, said to be the first ever made that will not leak, swell or gas.

It is believed the new "micro-cell" will open up vast new possibilities in providing a highly dependable source of electrical energy for hearing aids and other small, portable, personal devices, and that it will probably have important military and industrial applications.

The present cell, made for an electronic watch now under development, is so small it occupies about the volume of a penny, yet packs enough energy to operate specialized miniature devices at virtually constant voltage for two years. This is at least 25 per cent more capacity than any other comparable sealed battery yet developed.

Moreover, the battery is claimed to allow high current drainage without danger of "polarization," a commonplace chemical action in most cells whereby energy is blocked and the voltage drops suddenly.

A. P. Barton, general manager of Elgin National Watch Company's electronics division said that unlike other batteries the new cell has maintained full strength without deterioration in storage tests running more than a year thus far.

Secret of the development, he explained, is the use of indium as an anode. This is a soft, silvery metal whose value as a battery element had not previously been discovered.

Geiger Counter From Car Radio

LOS ANGELES—You can convert your car radio into a Geiger counter with the addition of a few pieces of inexpensive equipment.

So says Frank C. Strebe of the Atomic Energy Project on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California, who has assembled such a unit.

The equipment consists of a Geiger-Mueller tube and a few associated components, and can be purchased for approximately $30. However, an expert technician is required to assemble and install it properly.

Radiation is indicated in two ways: (1) by telltale clicks on the speaker of the car radio, or (2) by the movement of a needle on a dashboard-mounted meter. In normal driving, a motorist would probably listen to the speaker. In case of atomic warfare, the speaker could be used to receive instructions from civil defense authorities while the meter would warn of radiation.

The unit is designed to detect radiation within a 50-foot radius. Thus it would serve not only to warn occupants of danger but would make a car available for monitoring during atomic emergencies.

Strong Toes Save Man Falling From Roof

BOSTON—George A. Lacasse, 25, owes his life to strong toes and the sound of falling gravel.

Neighbors investigating a strange noise early in the morning found Lacasse suspended by his toes from the roof of a five-story apartment.

Police arrived on the scene and Lacasse was pulled onto the top of the roof, seconds before he collapsed from exhaustion and shock.

Lacasse said he went up to the roof for some fresh air, but stumbled and slid down the slope. He broke his fall by holding onto the edge by his feet.

Captured Eagle Proves Bothersome Guest

ARCHER, Neb. — Keneth and Dick Luebbe and Stanley Sinsel captured a bald eagle with a lasso after it was wounded. Then their troubles began.

The boys found they couldn't keep up with eagle's rabbit-a-day appetite, couldn't kill it because of a $1,000 fine imposed to protect the prototype of the national emblem, and couldn't let it go because it would prey on small farm animals.

Nebraska's Game Commission finally took the bird for zoo purposes.

True Bravery

LONG BEACH, N. Y. — Patrolman William Miller is a brave man. While walking his beat along the beachfront, he saw his wife, Joanne, park the family car and hurry off to go swimming with their children. He put a ticket on the car, since she had parked right in the middle of a restricted zone.

"She's going to pay the fine too," Miller declared.

Grass Lake P. T. A. Bake Sale
The Grass Lake P. T. A. will conduct a bake sale at the Ford garage Saturday morning. Those having bakery goods to donate may call Mrs. Belle Hribar, Indian Point. The regular meeting of the association will be held Monday evening at the school.

More Powerful Motors, Color and Styling in Marine Field Reported

More powerful motors, color, and styling are the trend in the marine field, according to Earl Gibbs and Ray Jenson, local sporting goods dealers following their return from a closed circuit telecast in Chicago in which the 1956 line of Johnson motors was shown.

The telecast was the first to be used by a marine equipment manufacturer in introducing new products to its dealers. Originating in New York, it was seen in 18 U. S. cities by some 2,200 Johnson Motor dealers, Gibbs and Jenson stated.

Gibbs and Jenson revealed that Johnson's 1956 outboard line would include nine models in six sizes, ranging from three to 30 horsepower, and would be in a two-tone combination of "holiday bronze" and white.

"With the increase in family boating in recent years," they said, "there has been an emphasis on larger, roomier boats and heavier loads. The 30-horse power motor, which replaces the '25', has been developed to provide more carrying capacity in cruisers and runabouts and for water skiing."

Outboards now are built to meet every individual or family need for the small water fisherman up, they commented. The 1956 Johnson line includes motors of 3, 5½, 7½, 10, 15 and 30 horsepower, with the 15 and 30 available both in electric starting and pull-cord models. Most of the new motors, they were informed, already are in production. Some of the new models may be seen now at Gibbs and Jenson's.

Ready about late autumn will be a fancy version of the 30-horsepower motor, called the "Javelin," with polished steel trim and concealed controls.

New Plaster-Paint Product Fills Cracks In Walls, Ceilings

A vexing problem most homeowners face, sooner or later, is what to do about those walls or ceilings which are in bad condition. Frequently, new homes as well as old ones, develop cracks or breaks in wall surfaces and ordinary painting jobs do not provide the answer in these cases.

An inexpensive and practical solution to this problem is presented by Antioch Lumber and Coal company who point out the advantages of a product they have available which provides the answer for troubled home owners. This is Plastr-Tone, a combination plaster-and-paint material which seals cracks, covers blemishes and does a complete resurfacing job over cracked plaster, wallboard, wallpaper, plywood or block.

Plastr-Tone is a ready mixed product, homogenized to eliminate stirring or mixing, and is applied with either roller or brush as easily as applying an ordinary coat of paint. It is made with a rubberized alkyl base which provides the flexibility and strength to resist cracking and splitting which is common to most materials of this type.

Available in sixteen colors, Plastr-Tone is hailed as the long-awaited answer to problem rooms, because it provides an economical and practical method for any amateur to use in achieving satisfactory results. Home owners are finding this product the perfect solution in almost every case of scarred, cracked or peeling wall and ceiling surfaces.

Football Season . . .

by Wayne Swanson, 160-pound senior.

tensen, a junior will be available for one of the posts on defense. Don Schroeder will play at full-back with Dick Sreh, 180-pound junior scheduled to see play.

The game will start at 8:30 p. m. and there will be no preliminary.

Antioch has been able to beat Wilmet in the past but the Panthers have narrowed the score each year until last year the Sequoias had to extend themselves to win by taking advantage of the breaks. The Wilmet line-up was not available from the Antioch High school.

The Sequoias will play their first conference game on the following Saturday at Elm-Vernon.

Hunting Season . . .

portunities for more waterfowl hunters than a year ago when only three advance permit areas were open for ducks and two for geese on a limited basis. One new duck area will be operated this year, and Sangamon, which was on a first-come basis last year will be operated on an advance permit basis along with Anderson Lake, Rice Lake, Woodford county and the new Marshall county area south of Lacon.

Duck and pheasant hunters seeking permits should write to the permit office in Springfield, preferably on a post card, asking for a pheasant or duck (or both) application blank. The blanks will be sent out immediately, together with an instruction sheet.

Closed 2 Days

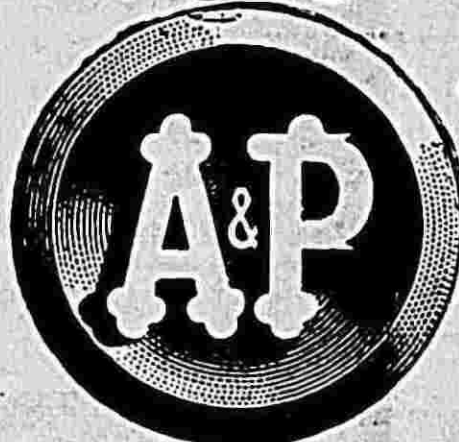

As in past years, duck areas will be closed to hunting on Mondays and Fridays to provide rest for the waterfowl. Pheasant hunting will be permitted each of the 20 days of the season.
